

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

3/16/07 - 3/18/07

Region: Central

Vintner and Culinary Weekends at Boar's Head Inn

Discover why Virginia wine is drawing rave reviews from industry experts, as you experience the best of Virginia wine country. Get to know our Executive Chef with a hands on cooking class featuring seasonal local foods and ingredients. Featuring the wines of King Family Vineyards. Package includes: Two nights' accommodations, vintner reception and dinner the first evening, wine seminar, cooking class with lunch, welcome gift and winery tour. Resort fees, taxes and gratuities included. Reservations are required.

Contact: Info: 800-476-1988 or www.boarsheadinn.com.

3/30/07 - 4/1/07

Region: Central

Vintner and Culinary Weekends at Boar's Head Inn

Discover why Virginia wine is drawing rave reviews from industry experts, as you experience the best of Virginia wine country. Get to know our Executive Chef with a hands on cooking class featuring seasonal local foods and ingredients. Featuring the wines of Barboursville Vineyards. Package includes: Two nights' accommodations, vintner reception and dinner the first evening, wine seminar, cooking class with lunch, welcome gift and winery tour. Resort fees, taxes and gratuities included. Reservations are required.

Contact: Info: 800-476-1988 or www.boarsheadinn.com.

3/31/07 - 4/1/07

Region: Central

Heart of Virginia April Fools Festival

Welcome the spring with a wine and music festival on the grounds of James River Cellars sponsored by The Heart of Virginia Wineries: Cooper Vineyards, Grayhaven Winery, Green Springs Winery, James River Wine Cellars, and Lake Anna Winery. Admission fee includes souvenir tasting glass and live music all day. Delicious food available for purchase or bring your own picnic. Advance tickets available at discounted price at www.coopervineyards.com or call 804-550-7516. 11am-5pm.

Contact: www.coopervineyards.com, 804-550-7516.

4/14/2007

Region: Central

"Celebrate Jamestown" Wine Festival

The Rotary Club of Caroline invites you to the Kick-off of America's 400th Anniversary, Jamestown, 1607-2007 at the Bowling Green Farm (formerly the Old Mansion) in Bowling Green, Virginia. Enjoy wine tastings from Virginia's finest wineries, festive foods, live entertainment, crafts and wine accessories. Admission $15/advance tickets, $20/at the gate, includes a commemorative glass and raffle ticket for gift basket. Contact: Kay Brooks, 804-633-5455 for more information go to www.carolinelibrary.org

Contact:

4/20/07 - 4/22/07

Region: Central

Vintner and Culinary Weekends at Boar's Head Inn

Discover why Virginia wine is drawing rave reviews from industry experts, as you experience the best of Virginia wine country. Get to know our Executive Chef with a hands on cooking class featuring seasonal local foods and ingredients. Featuring the wines of DelFosse Vineyards. Package includes: Two nights' accommodations, vintner reception and dinner the first evening, wine seminar, cooking class with lunch, welcome gift and winery tour. Resort fees, taxes and gratuities included. Reservations are required.

Contact: Info: 800-476-1988 or www.boarsheadinn.com.

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

4/21/07-4/22/07

Region: Central

The 2007 Monticello Wine Trail Festival

For information about the Monticello Wine Trail festival and our other events, go to www.monticellowinetrail.com. With 24 of the state's best wineries located within minutes of Charlottesville and Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, the Monticello Wine Trail holds something for everyone. Come join us in The Heart of Virginia Wine Country! 434-296-4188 ex. 21

Contact:

4/21/07 - 4/22/07

Region: Central

Virginia Fly Fishing and Wine Festival

The 7th annual Virginia Fly Fishing Festival will be held April 21-22 on the banks of the South River in Waynesboro, Virginia. This outdoor event boasts live music, many vendors and tastings from six wineries. Major sponsors include Orvis and Dominion Power. For more information visit

Contact: www.vaflyfishingfestival.org 703-402-8338

4/27/07 - 4/29/07

Region: Central

Vintner and Culinary Weekends at Boar's Head Inn

Discover why Virginia wine is drawing rave reviews from industry experts, as you experience the best of Virginia wine country. Get to know our Executive Chef with a hands on cooking class featuring seasonal local foods and ingredients. Featuring the wines of Blenheim Vineyards. Package includes: Two nights' accommodations, vintner reception and dinner the first evening, wine seminar, cooking class with lunch, welcome gift and winery tour. Resort fees, taxes and gratuities included. Reservations are required.

Contact: Info: 800-476-1988 or www.boarsheadinn.com.

4/28/2007

Region: Central

Lake Country Wine Festival

Join us for our first Lake Country Wine Festival in beautiful Clarksville on the Lake. Relax on historic lawns downtown and stroll by the lake as you sip a sampling of Virginia and North Carolina wines. Delight all your senses with live music and delicious food highlighting the undiscovered pleasures of Southern Virginia. $. Noon-5pm.

Contact: www.clarksvilleva.com, 434-374-2436.

5/5/07 - 5/6/07

Region: Central

Montpelier Wine Festival

A two-day event featuring local wines, held annually on the grounds of Montpelier, the lifelong home of James Madison.

Contact: <http://www.orangevachamber.com/winefest.html>

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

5/5/07 - 5/6/07

Region: Shenandoah Valley

Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival & Shenandoah

A Springtime Extravaganza in the Shenandoah Valley. A regional Virginia festival in its 79th year featuring wines from the oldest and newest Shenandoah Valley vineyards. Website: www.shenandoahvalleywinecountry.org. $7/person. 11am-6pm

Contact:

5/12/2007

Region: Shenandoah Valley

Luray's 2nd Annual Festival of Spring

Downtown Luray's Festival of Spring is a fantastic Shenandoah Valley festival for the whole family to enjoy. A day of music, games, food, fine arts and crafts, duck races and family fun. The festival features more than 150 crafters and food vendors, Virginia wineries and a Wine Garden. Spend your day in Luray, the town where Caverns meet the sky!

Contact: www.luraydowntown.com 10am- 6:30pm

5/19/2007

Region: Northern

21st Virginia Wine & Craft Festival

Come and enjoy tastings from over 16 Virginia Wineries. Live entertainment, arts and crafts, variety of food, children's area and unique shops. Rain or Shine. Wine admission: $12 in advance or $18 at gate. General admission: $2. Held in historic downtown Front Royal Virginia. 10am-6pm.

Contact: www.frontroyalchamber.com, 540-635-3185.

5/19/2007

Region: Eastern

The Hampton Wine, Art and Jazz Festival

Held at Mill Point Park in Hampton, enjoy fine wine, juried art and some of the finest local jazz on Hampton's beautiful waterfront. Includes commemorative glass and unlimited tastings. Specialty foods and non-alcoholic beverages available. 11am-6pm www.vasc.org/celebrationsbythebay

Contact:

5/19/2007

Region: Eastern

4th Annual Neptune's International Wine Tasting on

Sample over 90 international and regional wines in a spectacular setting, Neptune's Park at 31st Street on the Virginia Beach Boardwalk. Multiple samplings, festive food available for purchase, live entertainment all with the Atlantic Ocean as the natural backdrop. Tickets can be purchased online at www.neptunefestival.com. Noon-5pm

Contact:

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

5/19/07 - 5/20/07

Region: Central

Ash Lawn Highland's 13th Virginia WineFest

Held at the beautiful estate of President James Monroe, 11am to 5pm each day. Under the Pavilion, rain or shine. Top Virginia wineries, music, food, crafts. Stroll the grounds, tour the home and visit with President Monroe and interpreters, all included. $15 in advance, $17 at the gate. Call

Contact: 434-293-9539 for reservations after May 1, or visit www.ashlawn.com.

6/2/07 - 6/3/07

Region: Northern

Vintage Virginia

The 26th annual Vintage Virginia features unlimited tastings from over 50 award-winning wineries, plus a fantastic musical line-up, children's activities, fine artisans crafts, gourmet food and more. The state's premier wine festival, Vintage Virginia is centrally located at Bull Run Regional Park in Centreville Virginia. 540-745-3378

Contact: www.vintagevirginia.com

6/9/2007

Region: Eastern

The Wine and Fine Arts Festival at Locust Grove

Enjoy a day of family-friendly fun on the Mattaponi River at the Wine and Fine Arts Festival at Locust Grove . Just a short drive from Richmond or Fredericksburg you can explore the historic grounds of the old Fort Mattaponi and Locust Grove Farm. Regional wineries will offer wine tasting and artists from all over the east coast will be displaying their original artwork. Children's activities, music all day plus art auctions and all star food vendors. Held at Locust Grove Farm, see you there! 10am-5pm.

Contact: www.locustgrove1665.com, 804-769-8201.

6/9/2007

Region: Eastern

Summer Celebration Wine Festival at Lee Hall

Sample wines from some of Virginia's best wineries while enjoying living history, musical entertainment, food, crafts and more. Lee Hall, an Italianate mansion constructed circa 1859, served as the headquarters for Confederate generals Magruder and Johnston during the 1862 Peninsula Campaign. Info: 757-888-3371. Email: jwilliams@nngov.com.

Contact: Website: www.leehall.org. $15/advance, $20/gate. 11am-6pm.

6/16/2007

Region: Central

Festival of Wines on Wintergreen Mountain

The Festival of Wines features wines produced by the outstanding wineries of Central Virginia, including many medal winners. Benefits Wintergreen Performing Arts. Musical entertainment will accompany the Festival. Wintergreen Resort will offer food and activities to go with the event.

Contact: Info: 434-325-8292. Toll free: 1-866-984-6874. Website: www.wintergreen.com.

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

6/17/2007

Region: Northern

3rd Annual Manassas Wine and Jazz Festival

Listen to beautiful jazz music while you taste some of Virginia's finest wines, and enjoy the cheeses and other wonderful food provided by local merchants. You will find many merchants that offer wine related merchandise and wonderful taste treats. Held at the Harris Pavilion. $20 per person. 10am-6pm. 703-361-6599

Contact:

6/23/07 - 6/24/07

Region: Central

Nelson County Summer Festival

This enjoyable, two-day event happens annually the last full weekend of June, on the lawn of Oak Ridge Estate. With the mansion providing a stately backdrop, the festival spotlights Nelson County's award-winning wineries, superb national and regional music, good food, crafts, and children's fun. Again this year, You be the Wine Judge! 11am-6pm.

Contact: www.NelsonCountySummerFestival.com, 800-282-8223

7/7/07 - 7/8/07

Region: Central

South African Food & Wine Festival

Join Grayhaven Winery as they host the 2nd Annual South African Food & Wine Festival. Taste the adventure as South African chefs whip up a weekend of fantastic food complimented by South Africa's best wines and Grayhaven's own Pinotage. Don't miss this weekend of great food, wine, entertainment, & fun activities for the kids. Pick up your free travel kit with info on visiting beautiful South Africa! 11am-6pm.

Contact: www.southafricanfoodfest.com, 804-556-3917

7/7/07 - 7/8/07

Region: Southwest

Wine Down the Music Trail

Featuring two days of wine tastings from the finest regional wineries of Virginia and North Carolina. Located at a pristine parkway venue near Floyd, Virginia, "Wine Down the Music Trail" also boasts an artist's village, workshops, children's area, international cuisine, and a fantastic musical line-up. Info: 540-745-FEST. Website: www.winedownthetrail.com. Tickets $18/advance, $22/gate.

Contact:

7/14/2007

Region: Central

The FNB Horse and Hound Wine Festival

Nine of Virginia's finest wineries, good music, arts, crafts and foods located on the gracious grounds of Johnson's Orchards in Bedford. Events throughout the day with horses and dogs as the primary attractions. Families will enjoy this festival because it appeals to both young, old and pets. 11am-6pm. www.bedfordwine.com, 540-586-3707.

Contact:

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

7/21/07 - 7/22/07

Region: Shenandoah Valley

Daylily & Wine Festival

Andre Viette Farm & Nursery. Stroll the beautiful gardens of the nationally renowned Viette Farm & Nursery. Taste wines from many of Virginia's wineries. Enjoy live music while feasting on fantastic foods. Stroll through a diverse range of artisans and crafters. Enjoy horticultural and culinary seminars. Guest appearance of the American Shakespeare Center's Young Company Theatre Group. 9am -6pm.

Contact: www.augustachamber.org, 540-949-8203.

8/4/07 - 8/5/07

Region: Central

Heart of Virginia Wineries Beach Party Wine Festival

Cool off with the Heart of Virginia Wineries on the grounds of James River Cellars. Fee includes live music, wine tastings, and souvenir glass. Wear your wildest hawaiian shirt and flipflops. $12 in advance, $15 at the door. 11am-5pm.

Contact: www.jamesrivercellars.com, 540-895-5085.

9/15/2007

Region: Northern

32nd Annual Virginia Wine Festival

A grand East Coast tradition featuring 50 Commonwealth wineries, top cuisine, an array of arts and crafts vendors, educational wine seminars and food pairing demonstrations, great entertainment and children's activities. September 2007. Please visit www.virginiawinefestival.org for dates and details. www.virginiawinefestival.org, 703-922-7049

Contact:

9/7/2007

Region: Central

The Cadillac Commonwealth Cup Polo Match and

Great polo, wine and food for a good cause in Oilville. The Commonwealth team vs The British Combined Services team. Watch the Antique Carriage Parade and Dog Agility competition. Participate in the "Pretty Hat" and "Tailgate" contests and more. Benefits Goochland Fellowship, a non-profit organization. 804-556-6260. Go to www.commonwealthcup.com for festival dates. $25/advance, $30/gate, includes souvenir wine glass. 11am-5pm.

Contact: www.commonwealthcup.com, 804-556-6260

9/1/2007

Region: Central

Discover Virginia Food and Wine Festival

Fun, family-oriented festival located in beautiful Greene County showcases the finest wines, foods, and products Virginia has to offer. Enjoy music and artisans at the foothills of the Blue Ridge. Details and advance tickets at

Contact: www.discovervirginia.net. 11am-6pm

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

9/8/2007

Region: Shenandoah Valley

The 13th Annual Rockbridge Wine Festival

Come visit beautiful Rockbridge County and the Lime Kiln Theater for a day of wine samplings, live music, food and local vendors. Our musical line-up has been expanded. Sponsored by The Lexington Rockbridge County Chamber of Commerce. Ticket prices are $15. Noon-5pm.

Contact: chamber@lexrockchamber.com, 540-463-5375

9/15/07 - 9/16/07

Region: Eastern

11th Annual Neptune Festival Wine Tasting

Discover the pleasures of Virginia wines in a beautiful setting overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. Sample the finest Virginia has to offer (22 wineries offering the best of the Old Dominion) while a 26' bronze statue of King Neptune gazes down approvingly. Neptune's Park at 31st Street on the Virginia Beach Boardwalk. Tickets can be purchased online at

Contact: www.neptunefestival.com. Noon-5pm

9/29/07 - 9/30/07

Region: Central

19th Annual Smith Mountain Lake Wine Festival

Lakeside at Bernard's Landing Conference Center and Resort in Moneta, Virginia. This festival features 26 wineries, 85 quality craft and food vendors and live entertainment each day. Advance Tickets available online. Event sponsored by the Smith Mountain Lake Chamber of Commerce.

Contact: Website: www.visitsmithmountainlake.com or call 800-676-8203. 11am

10/7/2007

Region: Central

The 2007 Monticello Wine Trail Festival

For information about the Monticello Wine Trail festival and our other events, go to www.monticellowinetrail.com. With 24 of the state's best wineries located within minutes of Charlottesville and Thomas Jefferson's Monticello, the Monticello Wine Trail holds something for everyone. Come join us in The Heart of Virginia Wine Country!

Contact: 434-296-4188 ex. 21

10/6/07 - 10/7/07

Region: Central

Fredericksburg Area Wine Festival

Great entertainment, food, arts & crafts and fun for the whole family. Six member wineries and two guest wineries. Located at the Fredericksburg Fairgrounds off of Route 2. Call 866-339-9463 to purchase either tickets or tables for the day. $15/advance, $20/gate. 11am to 5pm.

Contact: www.fredericksburgwine.com, 866-339-9463.

Virginia Wineries Association (VWA) 2007 Virginia Winery Festivals

10/13/07 - 10/14/07

Region: Central

Virginia Wine and Garlic Festival 2007

Mingle with old friends and meet new ones. Drink wine and eat garlicky foods. Dance to a variety of live music as you shop for unique arts and crafts, irresistible specialty foods, Virginia wine and stinky GARLIC! Join us at Rebec for the 17th Annual Virginia Wine and Garlic Festival.

Contact: www.rebecwinery.com/vwgf, 434-946-5168.

10/13/07 - 10/14/07

Region: Shenandoah Valley

Mount Jackson Annual Apple and Grape Harvest

What better way to experience Virginia Wine Month and the crispness of Fall than at the Annual Mount Jackson Apple and Grape Harvest Festival in the heart of the beautiful Shenandoah Valley? Festival admission and parking is FREE! Virginia Wine Tasting will be $5.00, complete with a souvenir glass. There will be an Antique Car Rally, over 100 artisans and food vendors, Pony Rides, Hay Ride, Trout Pond, Apple Butter Making, a Cider Press, live music and much more fun for the whole family! Be sure to check out the Historic

Contact: www.mountjacksonva.org (540) 477-3275

10/14/2007

Region: Northern

Taste of Culpeper Wine & Food Festival

Sample fare from Culpeper's best restaurants accompanied by Virginia wines in the Historic Downtown area. Virginia vineyards will be displaying their vintages and culinary delights will be available. Come down and treat your palate to an extraordinary Taste of Culpeper. Activities for kids, too! Held at The Depot. Noon-5pm.

Contact: www.culpeperdowntown.com, 540-825-4416.

10/19/07 - 10/21/07

Region: Shenandoah Valley

Shenandoah Valley Hot Air Balloon & Wine Festival

A fun filled celebration for all ages held amidst the brilliant fall foliage of the Shenandoah Valley. Relax as hot air balloons & pumpkins glow Friday evening and enjoy am & pm flights as the skies burst with colorful hot air balloons Saturday & Sunday. Exciting sunrise to sunset activities; Virginia wine tasting, artisans, antique cars & fire engines, kids activities, live music, food & much more! Held at Historic Long Branch. $10/person 4:30-7pm.

Contact: www.historiclongbranch.com, 888-558-5567.
